TERMS OF THE FELLOWSHIP

Reporting

The successful candidate:

- (a) may be required to report to the Foundation from time to time during the course of the study and to provide a periodic accounting of expenditure of funds;
- (b) will be required to report at the conclusion of the study by providing a written report to the Foundation as to the outcome and achievements of the study;
- (c) will be required, within a reasonable time of the completion of the course of study, to provide such public addresses, seminars, continuing legal education seminars and articles as may be reasonably requested by the Foundation that may promote to both the community at large and the legal community the benefit of the undertaken study.

At the conclusion of the Fellowship the successful applicant, in addition to providing a report on the outcome of the study, will be required to provide a report as to the expenditure of monies received. The Foundation reserves the right to require an audit of such expenditure.

Termination of the Award

The Fellowship may be terminated by the Foundation for reason of breaches of the conditions of the award or on the recommendation of the host institution or organisation.

By signing below, I agree to these terms.
